

Precision Reading

Precision Reading is a short, daily, research-based remedial reading activity designed to improve fluency, sight word vocabulary, and passage comprehension. It enables students with low/poor reading abilities to make progress quickly and efficiently. Precision Reading is a one-on-one instructional activity that takes less than ten minutes a day. This program was created by Dr. Rick Freeze, professor at the University of Manitoba.