

S.T.A.R Coordinator Job Description

About Us

For over 40 years, Camp Amicus has provided impactful and life-changing camp experiences for children, teens, and youth with Learning Disabilities, ADHD, and related diagnoses. It is a place where participants are seen and understood for who they are, with individual supports in place for each camper/ young adult to find understanding, build confidence and maximize their potential. All programs at Amicus are based on current evidence-based and peer-reviewed models and interventions.

About You

Camp Amicus is not only a place for our campers and participants to grow but for our staff to grow too! We are passionate about helping staff develop new skills and find their passions within their role at Camp Amicus. Amicus staff are defined by their desire to grow, take responsibility for any missteps (we all make mistakes!), are flexible when changes happen, communicate with others clearly and honestly, and are self-starters. Amicus is not limited to folks with a set background in working with children, young adults or camp/recreation programs. We appreciate having staff with little or no experience joining our team who want to learn as they often provide new perspectives on our programs, policies, and how Amicus can be successful.

Position Summary

Working collaboratively with the Camp Manager, the S.T.A.R. (Supporting the Transition to Adult Responsibilities) Coordinator is responsible for the planning and implementation of the S.T.A.R. program. The S.T.A.R Coordinator is responsible for leading programs for our oldest participants/ campers to ensure they build independence, work/ life skills and friendships with peers. In addition, they are responsible for supporting and leading elements of staff training, communicating daily with the Camp Supervisor and/ or Manager about camper and staff support needs, and joining conversations with families to ensure the highest level of care for our campers. The S.T.A.R. Coordinator is directly supported by the Camp Supervisor to find success in their role at camp. We take the development of our camp staff seriously, through over 100 hours of paid training and industry certifications such as SIVA Training (Supporting Individuals through Valued Attachments) and structured supervision and mentorship plans for each staff member.
