DEPARTMENT	SERVICES	FINANCIAL SUPPORT
Psychological Services & Programs Operates as a psychology training centre (under the supervision of senior Registered Psychologists), which allows us to provide high-quality services at a more affordable rate. Manager : Melanie Reader	Psycho-educational assessments Individual and Family counselling Group psychology programs for children and youth	• Private insurance coverage often provides benefits for services provided by Psychologists. • If a family has FSCD funding, some group program fees may be covered. Check with your FSCD caseworker. • Foothills Academy bursary application*
Read/Write & Math Intervention Read/Write & Math Intervention Programs are not tutoring services. We provide intensive remediation of literacy and numeracy skills based upon Orton-Gillingham principles and other evidence-based programs. Manager : Jenny Davidson	Intensive Programs: • Literacy • Writing • Numeracy Booster Programs: • Literacy • Writing • Numeracy Weekly Programs: • Literacy • Writing • Numeracy Small Group Programs: • Numeracy Parent Training Programs	• These services may qualify for a "Medical Expense Tax Credit" through the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) if the individual has a diagnosed disability and a medical practitioner has certified in writing that literacy or numeracy intervention services are needed. • Foothills Academy bursary application*
Amicus Camp & Recreational Programs Find new friends, have fun, and enjoy new experiences! Our Amicus programs serve young people aged 8+, and have a strong focus on supporting social skill development. Manager : Luke McKinnon	Camp Amicus : • Day • Overnight camps • Outdoor Adventure • POLARIS teen leadership • Horsemanship Amicus Recreation offers a wide variety of weekly programming during the school year. STAR program for young adults (aged 18-23) to support the transition to adulthood	• FSCD: Families with an active FSCD contract who are accessing our Amicus Camp programs may be eligible for FSCD funding. Please reach out to your FSCD caseworker to inquire if funding is available for the camp program you are interested in. • Jumpstart Individual Child Grants: Your child's Amicus Recreation program may be eligible for a Jumpstart Individual Child Grant. Parents must apply themselves before the program concludes, and it must be for a sports-based program. Review the Jumpstart Individual Child Grant eligibility and apply online. • Foothills Academy bursary application*
Professional Development & Community Education Provides accurate and up-to-date education on LD, ADHD, and related issues. Manager : Bani Puri	Learning opportunities for parents, young adults, and the general community through: • In-person and online workshops • Online courses Professional Development opportunities for Educators, Educational Assistants, and other professionals through: • In-person and online workshops • Online courses	Please email Bani Puri to discuss financial options.